Redland Apprentice of the Year 2017
Winner Joe Stradling with Andy Dennis, Managing Director, BMI UK&I

APPRENTICE
OF THE YEAR 2018

Up to 20 finalists will be invited, along with their course tutor, to attend the two-day final on the 26th and 27th June. (Accommodation, dinner, bed & breakfast plus approved travel expenses shall be paid).

It's a competition that will test several aspects of a well-rounded apprentice, not just skills on the roof.

Finalists will receive professional coaching on all aspects of running a roofing business and will take part in "knowledge-sharing sessions" with roofing industry leaders, before battling it out to see who the Apprentice of the Year 2018 will be!

“

The whole experience was brilliant and I think we all got a lot out of the competition. Redland made us all feel like a team and that each one of us had done really well to have made the final ten. We all got on really well and shared our experiences after the day's training. I'd like to give a massive thanks to the whole Redland team for a great time that taught me a lot.”
